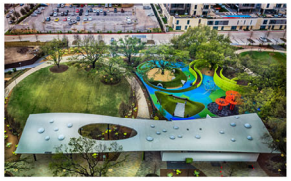
IMAGE CAPTIONS LIST

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_002
CAPTION Levy Park is located in Houston's Upper Kirby Neighborhood and serves as the only public greenspace in the Upper Kirby District,
PHOTO CREDIT Google Maps

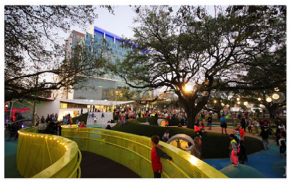


FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_003
CAPTION Levy Park has been renovated into an amenity-rich, open, green space that has been warmly embraced by the City of Houston.The parkhas created a destination with a strong sense of place and community.
PHOTO CREDIT Dan Netz

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_004
CAPTION Levy Park has been completely redesigned and features thoughtfully designed, flexible outdoor rooms that support a multitude of programming needs.
PHOTO CREDIT Upper Kirby Redevelopment Authority

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_005
CAPTION Prior to the re-development of Levy Park, the park had fallen into disrepair, suffering from a lack of visibility, access and activation. The three surrounding developments turned their back on the park and there was only public access via a single street.
PHOTO CREDIT Google Maps

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_006
CAPTION The 42,000 SF event lawn offers flexible site furnishings and plenty of space for relaxation and social interaction with the year-round programming initiatives and daily roster of activities, such as yoga, zumba, concerts and more.
PHOTO CREDIT Geoff Lyon



FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_007
CAPTION The site's 70-year-old legacy live oaks are strategically incorporated into the design as key components of the elevated boardwalk and tree house located in the Children's Garden. These monument trees provide much needed shade and anchor the center of the park.
PHOTO CREDIT Scott Blons

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_008
CAPTION At the heart of the park is the Children's Garden. An interactive water feature mimics a Houston rain shower, by changing the tempo of the water's spray and alternating the lighting colors.
PHOTO CREDIT Morris Malakoff

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_009
CAPTION A seven-foot-wide slide spans a berm, offering riders a fun-filled descent with their friends.
PHOTO CREDIT Dabfoto Creative

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_010
CAPTION Levy Park regularly hosts daily, weekly and seasonal events to promote healthy living and healthy lifestyles. Community-driven activities facilitate a multitude of programming needs for locals and visitors.
PHOTO CREDIT Morris Malakoff

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_011
CAPTION One of the most energized zones in the park, the games area offers activities that span the spectrum, creating enjoyment for people of all ages.
PHOTO CREDIT Geoff Lyon

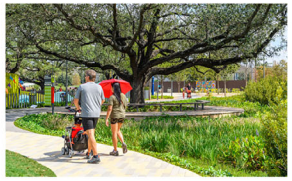
FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_012
CAPTION Levy Park's small and large dog play areas feature play berms and water fountains which keep dogs entertained, cool and hydrated. Benches and shade allow owners to sit comfortably while their dogs socialize in a secure and attractive environment.
PHOTO CREDIT Geoff Lyon

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_013
CAPTION The Community Garden provides an interactive opportunity for education, as well as community engagement and investment in the park. The site of the park's future restaurant is immediately adjacent to the garden, facilitating farm-to-table harvesting of menu ingredients.
PHOTO CREDIT Geoff Lyon

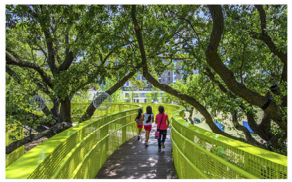
FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_014
CAPTION The 2,000-SF performance pavilion acts as an event space and accommodates various recreational needs and gatherings.
PHOTO CREDIT Geoff Lyon

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_015
CAPTION The Children's Garden is full of fun interactive obstacles for children to engage with, including tunnels, a water feature and musical sculptures.
PHOTO CREDIT Geoff Lyon

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_016
CAPTION The streetscape was renovated to strengthen pedestrian and vehicular connectivity to the park, while the promenade, lined with trees and moveable furniture, circles the park and was designed to create synergy among the various spaces.
PHOTO CREDIT Tommy Orellana



FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_017
CAPTION The 7,500-square-foot rain garden harvests and reuses stormwater, creatively mitigating Houston's frequent flooding and becoming an attractive on-site amenity.
PHOTO CREDIT Geoff Lyon



FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_018
CAPTION A 150-foot-long ADA acessible tree house winds through the Children's Garden, spanning across sprawling, picturesque legacy live oak trees that were relocated on-site and provide a magnificent canopy.
PHOTO CREDIT Geoff Lyon

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_019
CAPTION Ample shade makes the park comfortable and usable in all seasons, while moveable furniture provides flexibility for park users.
PHOTO CREDIT Geoff Lyon

FILE NAME LevyPark_Houston_020
CAPTION Levy Park has become an become an urban commons for all hours of the day. Carefully integrated park lighting elements create a comfortable, safe environment for users after dark.
PHOTO CREDIT Luis Ayala