ULI Council Member Expectations

Council membership is a privilege desired by many ULI members and the value of the Council experience is determined by the quality and participation of its members. Each Council member is therefore expected to be a committed participant of the Council, contributing as much value to the Council experience as they take home.

OPEN, HONEST, SPECIFIC INFORMATION AND EXPERIENCE:
Come to Council meetings ready to participate openly and honestly with specific, detailed information and experience from your current real estate practice.

CONFIDENTIALITY:
Everything discussed within a Council is kept completely confidential by all Council members. This is the foundation that makes open and honest sharing of detailed information and experience possible. Violation of confidentiality will result in immediate expulsion from your Council.

REAL DEALS, REAL NUMBERS:
The key to truly valuable interaction between the Council members is the sharing of real deals and real numbers, as well as successes and lessons learned.

RESPECT FOR OTHERS:
Help make discussions productive and high value by engaging your fellow council members respectfully with your most relevant information and experience.

NO SELF PROMOTION:
Council members are all highly successful real estate professionals. Self-promotion and pitching do not add value for your fellow council members. Keep your presentations and discussions aimed at delivering real take home value for your peers, not your business.

USE OF COUNCIL GROUP EMAIL
ULI provides each council a group email primarily for each leadership team to effectively communicate with their members outside of council day and solicitation is expressly prohibited. Members are required to contact their Chair should they wish to use the group email for council related communications in order to obtain approval in using the list.

NO CELL PHONES:
It should go without saying that you cannot be fully engaged in your council while checking your email. Most Councils have breaks designed to allow members to check in and stay connected a few times during the day.

RECRUIT THE BEST AND BRIGHTEST:
Council members often come into contact with new leaders in the industry—both ULI members and non-ULI members—with exciting new products, ideas and best practices that will add greatly to the value of their Council. Bring these new leaders as guests to your Council, sponsor them for Council membership and work with your Council leadership to help them become future members of your Council.

ATTEND EVERY MEETING AND ATTEND ALL DAY:
Each Council member has been chosen for the value that their unique background and experience brings to the Council. Missing a Council meeting or part of a Council meeting reduces the value for every other member of your Council. Your empty seat could easily be filled by someone else who has value to bring to the table.

• For attendance at Council meetings to be counted, four conditions must be met:
  o Since Council Meeting Day is part of the ULI conference for a Council member, each Council member must be registered for the entire conference.
  o Each Council member must attend the Council meeting in person—sending a substitute is not permitted.
  o You must be in attendance at the Council to which you have been appointed for a minimum of four hours on Council Day to be counted present.
  o Each Council member must sign an attendance sheet during the Council meeting, as this provides the only record of one’s attendance. Your Council Chair will have this sheet for you to sign.

PARTICIPATE IN ULI AND ULI LEADERSHIP:
Council members are expected to be active participants in ULI’s mission of providing leadership in the responsible use of land and in creating and sustaining thriving communities worldwide. Your involvement in ULI provides excellent opportunities to network and to learn both within and beyond the boundaries of your industry segment:

• Attend and participate as speakers and panelists at ULI Spring Council Forums and Fall Meetings.
• Attend and participate as speakers and panelists at Council, and District Council meetings.
• Serve as panelists at Project Analysis Sessions held at Spring Council Forums and Fall Meetings.
• Serve as panel members for Advisory Services assignments scheduled throughout the year.
• Contribute to ULI publications through the contribution of articles and papers.
• Contribute to the ULI Foundation.
• Participate as Committee/Subcommittee/Task Force members.
• Participate in research and education programs.
